

Visitors to the Bicentennial Celebration at Jambo Creek will travel back in time today. On the site, among many events planned for the celebration, are an encampment of some 28 Buckskinner reenactors and their 17 lodges depicting, in authentic dress, just how things were back in those days. The group is Rodgers Rangers, including some Denmark residents, who normally portray events of the War of 1812.

Photo submitted